First Inning.—The visitors came to bat first and Ward's men soon took the field. The game opened by Hemming hitting Ryan on the fert shoulder with a pitched ball. Cooney bunted safely, Ryan going to second. Dahlen sacrificed, Hemming to Foutz.

Anso hit to Burns and Ryan and Cooney second on that player's error. Carroll struck out and Anson stole second. Burns filed to Foutz. Two runs.

Ward got a base on balls as a starter, and stole second with a brilliant slide. Foutz stole second. Plukney out, Cooney to Anson, Ward sooning and Foutz reaching third.

Burns went to first on balls. Darby O'Brien bunted safely and Poutz scored. Caruthers hit to Pfeller, forcing O'Brien at second and Puritan O'Brien out, Burns to Anson. Two runs.

SECOND INNING.—Pfeller hit for three bags to right. Luby filed to Darby O'Brien, Pfeller scoring on the throw-in. Kitridge out, Foutz to Hemming. Kyan out, Pinkney to Foutz. One run.

Above all the noise Littlefield heard the voice of Wyndnam Walden, the trainer, yell : "Go on, Fred." Then Littlefield realized his blunder. Like a flash Terrifler sped to the front. He gained a length's advantage, and before Hamilton was aware of his mistake the winning post had been passed, with Terrifler a neck in front.

did not cease their comment all the afteron. Kington's owner, Michael J. Dwyer, was terribly disappointed, but was unusually fortunate just the same. He is a great plunger, and when the odds were put up he sent in $30,000 to be placed on Kingston. The price against the brown horse was 1 to 15, and the bookies were so sure that King-ston would win that they refused Dwyer's
